REPORT

Date September 29, 1936

Subject Whereabouts of prostitute named Lackey.

Made by D. S. Jones

Forwarded by J. Boyne 9 19

In connection with the attached letter of enquiry from Mr. George R. Sowle regarding the present whereabouts of an American prostitute named Babe Lackey, I have to state that there is no record of such a person.

There are comparatively few American prostitutes actually employed in brothels in Shanghai and those that follow this calling seem to be well acquainted one with the other. Most of these women have been interviewed regarding Lackey, but state they do not know anybody of that name. Various brothel owners have also been interviewed and are unanimous in stating that no-one of this name has ever visited the brothels managed by them.

No American woman named Lackey has ever registered at the American Consulate-General in Shanghai.

Commissioner of Police
Shanghai Municipal Police.

Dear sir,

I am in search of the whereabouts of a certain Chinese woman who had at my last knowledge of her been living in Shanghai.

Her residence started about June 1935 until Dec 1937, from Shanghai and presumably had come to live here. I knew her as Babe Barker, as far as I know she worked in a prostitution at 56...
to find out her name.

on Ferry Road.

It is vitally necessary to me to know if she is in Shanghai and also in what part of the city. I can get in touch with her. My last knowledge of her residence was in the French Concession.

Thanking you for your time and trouble, looking to receive your reply.

Yours truly,
George R. Law.
